PRESIDENT’S REPORT – Lisa Loo

- Recognition of the passing on December 1, 2016, of Steven August Hirsch, Sr., the Board’s Second Vice President, who lost his courageous battle against pancreatic cancer. Board members took time to speak about him as a leader and an exemplary man, someone who they aspire to emulate. Board members shared “Steve stories”. Steve was a consummate lawyer and mentor. His professional and civic contributions are too extensive to list. Mr. Hirsch loved the State Bar and was active in its activities up until two weeks before his passing.
PRESIDENT’S REPORT (Continued)

- With Mr. Hirsch’s passing there is a vacancy on the Board of Governors. Staff will review the bylaws and rules and make a recommendation at the January 30 Board meeting regarding this seat.
- Thanked Diane Drain and Jay McClimon for opening their beautifully decorated home for the Board Holiday Party.
- Attended the Arizona Society of Association Executives’ Annual Awards Gala where the Bar was honored:
  o Tim Eigo, Editor of the Arizona Attorney magazine, accepted the Creative Funding Award. When revenue was lost from the elimination of the printed membership directory, the Communications Department created a special insert in the March issue of the magazine listing expert witnesses which made up for some of the lost revenue.
  o The Award for Membership Development, recognizing the Bar’s new member orientation, was accepted by CEO/Executive Director John Phelps.
  o The President’s Award was given to Lisa Deane, Chief Member Services Officer.
- Attended the Arizona Judicial Council (AJC) meeting in Flagstaff with General Counsel John Furlong.

CEO/ED REPORT – John Phelps

- Mr. Phelps introduced Lisa Deane who presented a Member Services Moment.
- A new initiative was spotlighted: a lawyer/judicial education program, Hidden in Plain Sight: Dementia and Its Impact on Lawyers and Judges – a free 75 minute CLE.
  o The program, offered nationally via webcast, will highlight the signs of dementia as well as general responsibilities of lawyers and judges and offer a review of available resources. A more in-depth three hour Arizona-specific program is being developed for April 7, 2017.
  o Impetus for this program came from an ABA program the Hon. Lorraine C. Arkfeld chaired last spring. Alzheimer’s is a growing societal tsunami as every 66 minutes someone in the U.S. is diagnosed with the disease. Lawyers and judges may attend the program live at the Bar Offices or watch by webcast. Group viewings are encouraged.

CALL TO THE PUBLIC: President Lisa Loo announced that each speaker would be limited to three minutes.

- This is a time for the public and guests to speak. Issues raised are not to be deliberated at this time.
  o Kyle Hirsch, Maricopa County Bar Association President, expressed concern over the proposed Public Service Center (PSC) if it includes a lawyer referral service. That is something the MCBA and Pima County Bar Associations are currently doing.
  o Norma Izzo, MCBA President–Elect, expressed concern if the PSC were to experience a financial shortfall, would that be paid for by members’ mandatory fees?
  o Allister Adel, Ethics Committee member and MCBA Executive Director, expressed concern about how lawyers who participate in the PSC are rated/screened and the price points – does the lowest (lawyer) bidder win (get the case); that would “cheapen the profession.”
  o Melinda Sloma, MCBA Secretary, expressed ethical concerns about the creation of the PSC; urged more study regarding unintended consequences.
  o Tyler Carrell, MCBA Board member, stated his concern over how the proposed Center might impact the MCBA’s Lawyer Referral Service.
  o Call to the Public concluded. President Loo encouraged those interested to submit written comments for consideration regarding any topics on the agenda.

JUSTICE FOR ALL – Dave Byers ➢ March 3, 2016, Chief Justice Scott Bales issued Administrative Order No. 2016-16 which established the Task Force on Fair Justice for All. The purpose of the task force was to study and make recommendations regarding:
    o Statutory changes, if needed, to court rules, written policies, and procedures for setting, collecting, and reducing or waiving court-imposed payments.
    o Options for people who cannot pay the full amount of sanction at the time of sentencing to make reasonable time payments or perform community service in lieu of some or all of the fine or sanction.
    o Best practices for making release decisions that protect the public but do not keep people in jail solely for the inability to pay bail.
    o The practice of suspending drivers’ licenses and alternatives to license suspension.
  ➢ Mr. Byers reviewed the 53 recommendations from the Task Force that included judicial educational and training programs that were presented to the AJC on October 31, 2016, for its review and considerations.
