Elizabeth Noble Rollings Friman

Elizabeth is a third-generation Tucsonan. After earning her B.A. from Connecticut College, Elizabeth moved to New York City where she gained a background in securities work as a legal assistant with Davis Polk & Wardwell. Elizabeth returned to Tucson in 2009 and is a graduate of the University of Arizona Rogers College of Law. In 2013, she joined Tucson law firm of Fleming & Curti as an Associate. Elizabeth is a licensed private fiduciary and her practice focuses on trust administration, guardianship, conservatorship, and estate planning. She enjoys public speaking and has presented on different topics including Charitable Gift Planning, Diminished Capacity and Estate Planning, Representation of Personal Representatives and Trustees and Best Practices for Trustees Managing Self-Settled Special Needs Trusts. Elizabeth co-chaired the Probate and Trust track for the CLE by the Sea program in 2017 and 2018.

Elizabeth is a member of the Arizona State Bar Probate & Trust Executive Council. She also serves on the Professional Advisory Group for the Jewish Community Foundation and the Gift Planning Professional Advisory Counsel for the University of Arizona Foundation. She is currently serving as President of a local section 8 housing project, Blanche Johnson Affordable Housing, President of the Planned Giving Round Table of Southern Arizona and Vice President and Treasurer of the Arizona Chapter of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys. Elizabeth loves practicing law in her hometown and is fortunate to work in a dog-friendly office, where her goldendoodle, Duncan, joins her at work. Outside the office, Elizabeth enjoys gardening, grilling and paddle boarding with her husband, Doug.
