Ayensa I. Millan is a Senior Lobbyist and Managing Attorney for CIMA Law Group. She also has years of experience handling criminal and immigration matters. Her past work with various firms and non-profits strengthened her belief that there is a need for compassionate and effective legal representation. Her work has included representing corporate, government, and nonprofit clients. As a native of Puerto Penasco, Mexico she immigrated to Phoenix, AZ and has built a reputable name for herself within government agencies and the corporate sector. She has worked tirelessly in her community and devoted her life to improving the lives of those she represents. Her commitment and dedication stem from her own personal experiences; knowing firsthand the struggles and needs of the community. Ayensa volunteers her time, expertise, and resources with various community organizations; including the handling of low-bono and pro-bono cases. This type of advocacy has established her as a trusted and respected attorney among her colleagues. Ayensa is a member of the American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA), and is the former Chair of the Immigration Section of the State Bar of Arizona. She also hosts two radio shows where she gives legal advice and information on criminal and immigration matters. In 2014, she was one of the recipients of the “40 Hispanic Leaders Under 40” award for her work and commitment to the community.
