Rising Star Award: This award is designed to recognize a Rising Star attorney who (1) is a current public attorney (2) with a maximum of five years public lawyer experience and (3) who has demonstrated a passion for representing the public, an outstanding work ethic, and exceptional legal talent. A public attorney is a licensed attorney who: (1) works for a government agency (federal, state or local) or nonprofit legal aid office; or (2) provides legal services to a government agency or agencies where legal services provided amount to at least 50% of their legal practice. This award could be given to a Rising Star for one specific case or for a series of outstanding accomplishments which demonstrate the attorney is a Rising Star. Nominees may also distinguish themselves by making significant contributions that aid in the operation of government or by demonstrating extraordinary leadership, initiative, or innovation. Elected public officials are not eligible for this award.
